

SONS & DAUGHTERS CULTURE CONVERSATION SERIES

A series of graceful and interactive conversations about life, family and the things we don't talk about but affect everyone.

Our Story, God's Story: The Gospel as a Blueprint for a Culture of Life

Discuss pivotal philosophical shifts affecting modern history in the Western world, and why the Gospel authors a different story. Be equipped to understand the roots and timeline of abortion, broken sexuality, gender confusion, and to embody God's story, as an ambassador of a different Kingdom.

Turning the Hearts of Fathers

Explore the weighty value fathers bring to healthy family life, and the role they play in establishing the foundation for abundant living. Understand the influence of our own fathering experiences and bring healing, meaning and manhood to the opportunity of fatherhood in today's culture of fatherlessness.

Sexual Discipleship & the Body of Christ

Reclaim the significance of our sexuality and God's purpose and freedom related to sex and intimacy by addressing common life experiences and current cultural expressions. Move from sexual information to sexual discipleship and learn to apply God's truth, with grace, at every stage, in every season and for every generation.

Restoring the Orphan Spirit: Embracing Adoption

Unpack our spiritual identity as adopted sons and daughters, quiet false narratives and help reshape the church's broken image surrounding adoption. Learn to love well and communicate God's heart for adoption, and for parenting children with a healthy theology of family.

Brave Humility: Abortion, Miscarriage and Maternal Loss

Be informed of current trends and the common struggle for men and women related to the sensitive and pervasive issue of abortion in the church. Choose transparency, invite healing, and learn how to openly engage in helpful conversation about abortion and about loss, in your community and in the lives of those closest to you.

Changing Things With Words

Learn effective and strategic communication and connection skills that will help you love and listen well and navigate today's toughest topics. Understand the core needs of every person, ask better questions, leverage deep and meaningful conversation and be and bring living hope to those in your social circles.

Know, Obey & Share: Speaking the Gospel Story

Practice introducing the Gospel into everyday conversation. Learn a clear and simple cross-cultural Gospel model along with practical first steps of Biblical discipleship that celebrate your own journey with Jesus and build your confidence to bring others along with you toward mature faith and meaningful multiplication.
